BECTU SEEKS RECOGNITION FOR COLLECTIVE BARGAINING ON BEHALF OF FREELANCE WORKERS AT (1) THE BRITISH BROADCASTING CORPORATION (BBC) AND (2) BBC RESOURCES LIMITED

BECTU is recognised for collective bargaining for freelance workers at BBC Scotland and the BBC Natural History Unit. We seek to extend that recognition to the rest of the BBC; and we seek recognition at BBC Resources Ltd.

Specifically, we seek recognition for collective bargaining on pay, hours and holidays for freelance workers (except electricians, journalists, musicians, performers, and writers) engaged by the rest of the BBC, and by BBC Resources Ltd.

To support recognition please fill in the form below, sign and date it, and return to BECTU as soon as possible. This Petition will not be made available to the BBC or BBC Resources Ltd. without your permission. We may submit it in confidence to the Advisory Conciliation and Arbitration Service (ACAS); and/or to the Central Arbitration Committee, the Government body that has power to award us recognition.

“AS A TV FREELANCE WORKER, I SUPPORT BECTU’S REQUESTS (1) TO EXTEND RECOGNITION FOR COLLECTIVE BARGAINING FOR FREELANCE WORKERS TO THE REST OF THE BBC AND (2) FOR RECOGNITION BY BBC RESOURCES LTD.”
