In the recent May election the fascist BNP gained a seat on the London Assembly, just crossing the 5% hurdle needed to get elected. The BNP is not a legitimate political party. It is a fascist organization dedicated to the political tradition of Hitler and Mussolini.

Hitler's Nazi Holocaust saw the annihilation of six million Jews, as well as millions of eastern Europeans, trade unionists, supporters of democratic parties, lesbians, gays, disabled people and gypsies.

Yet BNP leader Nick Griffin likes to pretend the Holocaust never took place. "The 'extermination' tale is a mixture of Allied wartime propaganda, extremely profitable lie, and latter-day witch hysteria," he said in 1998.

Many BNP members and ex-members have been involved in racist attacks. But the BNP is not simply a gang of racist thugs. It is an organised party that wants to smash every last vestige of democracy and replace it with a totalitarian regime. Everyone who wants to see a better world has an interest in stopping them.

The demonstration on 21 June is crucial. Unite Against Fascism and Love Music Hate Racism are calling on all other anti-racist groups, trade unionists and progressive political parties to support the protest.

We want to see tens of thousands of people on the streets. And we want to send a clear message to the BNP – their message of hate is not welcome in our multicultural and diverse society.
