the HD effect

BECTU invites you to this cutting-edge seminar on how HD communication will be impacting on your industry. Under discussion will be the science of HD and its effects on cameras and content creation and its effect on post production. Speakers include Greg Lofton of Sillwood Films and Martin Uren, a leading expert in HD technology.

Join us for a drink and learn about the latest courses at BECTU, 01zero-one, Westminster Kingsway College and Ravensbourne College of Design and Communication and talk to professionals from Skillset Careers about job prospects and funding opportunities in the industry.

There is no charge for this event but places are limited.

Please RSVP to secure your place to Yvonne Smith, smithy@bectu.org.uk

DRINKS from 6.30pm, MASTERCLASS 7-8pm
