

Course Details
Course Name:	PASMA Tower Training
Date:	12 th June 2007
Course duration:	1 day (9.30am - 5.00pm)
Max no of delegates:	12 per course
Cost of Course:	£25 for BECTU Members £120 for non-members
Venue:	Stage Electrics, Bristol Branch

Course objectives;

- To provide formal instruction on the principles and practices of correct inspection, erection and dismantling of mobile access towers
- To understand the PASMA code of practice
- To gain knowledge on necessary legislation that affects safe use of towers

Course content;

- Theory and legislation that applies to towers
- Risk assessment
- Safe systems of work
- Principles and practices of safe inspection and erection
- Working platforms, toe boards and hand rails
- Height to base ratio - use of outriggers and stabilisers
- Principles and practices of safe dismantling
- Practical demonstration
- Safe use of ladders
- Working from height legislation

There will be an informal assessment at the end of the course

The course will be PASMA accredited and delegates will receive a PASMA certificate of competency and a photo ID card.

To book your place contact Sara Alarabi:
0117 937 9503 or email sara.alarabi@stage-electrics.co.uk

