

Future Positive - a day conference for BECTU women

It's that time already - the annual BECTU Women's Conference is here again, and it's even bigger, even better than last year.

What: Aiming to bring women together to share positive ideas and experiences. Workshops on self defence, public speaking, goal setting for the ideal female friendly workplace, seminars, networking, campaigning, guest speakers, lunch, stalls and the grand finale, a pub quiz for women, all in the fantastic facilities of the Congress Centre at the TUC.

When: All day on Saturday 22nd November 2008.

Where: Congress Centre, TUC, Great Russell Street, London, WC1.

Who: Any women BECTU members who want to learn more about what BECTU can do for women and how more women can become involved.

How: For more information or to reserve your place contact Tracey Hunt on 020 7346 0923 or email thunt@bectu.org.uk

We have listed below a series of FAQ's to help you find out more about the day. Programme subject to change.

Will BECTU pay my travel and expenses?

BECTU will pay any additional costs you incur to be able to travel to the conference; we will also pay for a hotel if you need to stay the night before and have a long journey.

Is there any cost for the conference?

There is no cost for the conference.

Will lunch be provided?

Lunch and all refreshments throughout the day will be provided. You will be asked whether you have any special requirements nearer the time.

I don't know my work schedule for that date; can I register nearer the time?

Yes, of course, although all final registrations need to be received by two weeks before the conference.

Do I have to be a BECTU member to take part?

Yes!

Do I have to be a BECTU rep to take part?

No we welcome all female BECTU members, whether you have been involved in BECTU activity in the past, or whether you're new to BECTU and want to find out more.

Look forward to hearing from you.
